Supporting Our Nation's Brightest Young People

The Davidson Institute for Talent Development is a national nonprofit dedicated to supporting exceptionally gifted students through these programs:

Davidson Young Scholars

Free support services for profoundly gifted young people between the ages of 5 and 17, and their parents, including academic support, advocacy, social-emotional resources, talent development and early college. Peer connections are made through an annual conference and online community.

Davidson Fellows Scholarships

$50,000, $25,000 and $10,000 scholarships for students 18 and under who have completed graduate-level work.

The Davidson Academy of Nevada

A public day school on the University of Nevada, Reno campus for profoundly gifted middle and high school students.

THINK Summer Institute

A three-week residential summer academic experience in Reno, Nevada where 13- to 16-year-old exceptionally gifted students can earn college credits.

Educators Guild

A free national service for elementary, secondary and post-secondary educators, as well as other professionals committed to meeting the unique needs of highly gifted students.

Davidson Gifted Database

A gateway to resources for and about gifted young people with easy search capabilities for articles, resources and state policy pages to help students, parents and educators pinpoint information.
