2012 Davidson Fellows Scholarship Application

Termination and Amendment of Program. The Davidson Institute reserves the right in its sole discretion to terminate this Fellows Award program at any time and for any reason and to change any or all of the rules regarding the grant or use of any scholarships. No such termination of the Award program shall apply so as to terminate a scholarship recipient's right to an Award previously granted unless such termination is required in the reasonable opinion of the Davidson Institute to comply with applicable laws or to assure the Davidson Institute that its tax exempt status will not be negatively affected or unless the continued payment of such scholarship will result in any form of tax being imposed upon the Davidson Institute or any of its affiliates, officers, directors, employees or representatives. In addition, amendments to the program may affect the terms and conditions of use of awards previously granted.

Discretion of Institute; Binding Nature of Decisions. By submitting this application, we acknowledge and agree that all decisions of the Davidson Institute regarding the Award program and the grant and use of scholarships and other awards may be made by it in its sole and absolute discretion, subject only to compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. As such, all decisions of the Davidson Institute and its committees and judges shall be final and binding and are not subject to challenge by us in any manner. The number of scholarships to be awarded shall be determined by the Davidson Institute in its sole discretion.

Name and Likeness. We understand that the selection and review process will be conducted on a basis that reveals information about the undersigned and our background and family. We also understand that the Davidson Institute may, without compensation to us or anyone else, publicize the Award program, our participation in the Program, information about us and our background and the results of the applicant's work and the Awards process. In that regard, we grant the Davidson Institute the right to use, for any lawful purpose related to the Davidson Institute or the Award program, in any legal form or manner, in whole or in part, in perpetuity, our names, biographical information and likenesses, the work and any information relating to it, as well as any statements made by us to the Davidson Institute. Such uses may be made in the Davidson Institute's discretion in any media or form. The Davidson Institute may take pictures, videos and audio recordings and may use any other form of media with respect to us and the matters described above.

Attendance. The applicant understands that if I am named as a Davidson Fellow, I, along with at least one parent or guardian, must attend the Davidson Fellows event to be held in Washington, D.C. October 2, 3 and 4, 2012. Attendance is a condition precedent to receipt of a scholarship or any other award or benefits.

Attestation. By checking the boxes below, the undersigned each attest that all of the information submitted or to be submitted to the Davidson Institute, including the information in this application is true and accurate and does not omit any information necessary to make the information provided not misleading. We hereby further certify that the work submitted here is the applicant's own and that it does not infringe upon or violate any rights of any nature of any third person.
